Mark Kissick Joins York Insurance Services Group as President of York Programs

PARSIPPANY, N.J., (March 1, 2010) – York Insurance Services Group, a premier provider of claims administration and risk management services to select industry sectors, today announced that Mark Kissick has joined the company as president of York Programs. Providing customized claims programs to more than 250 national Programs in dozens of industries, York Programs is the claims partner of choice to MGAs, carriers, program administrators and brokers nationwide.

In his role as president of York Programs, Kissick will have responsibility for financial results, segment growth, marketing strategy, business development and client satisfaction.

Kissick comes to York Programs with more than 22 years of insurance industry experience. He most recently served as vice president of sales for Zurich Financial Services Group's Programs & Direct Markets division, where he led the division to an unprecedented eight years of growth and designed and implemented a new multi-channel distribution structure. Prior to joining the Programs division in 2001, Kissick held management and executive positions with Universal Underwriters Group and Farmers Insurance Company, both subsidiaries of Zurich.

Kissick received a Bachelor of Science degree in business and finance from the University of Kansas at Lawrence. He is a member of the marketing board of the Association of American General Agents (AAMGA) and frequently presents at Target Markets Program Administrators Association (TMPAA) conferences and events.

He will be based in York's Boston office.
